

Englewood Public Library Library Closure Policy

Following the Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA) guidelines, if indoor temperatures are to reach 82 degrees Fahrenheit or above on any floor without functioning air conditioning during the summertime, the library will close to assure staff and patron safety.

Alerts of said closures will be posted on the library's website & social media, and the City Hall of Englewood will be notified.